EUROPEAN MEDICAL CENTER IS NOW CLOSER

JUNE 6, 2007, MOSCOW – OAO Pharmacy Chain 36.6 [MICEX:RU14APTK1007; RTS:APTK] and European Medical Center (EMC) announce the first general practitioner office in the 36.6 pharmacy.

Doctor's office in a pharmacy is the first-time general practitioner medical services offer in Russia. The office provides services of a general practitioner, cardiologist and neurologist. EMC doctors who receive patients in a general practitioner office have international working experience and speak both the Russian and English languages.

The doctor can issue prescriptions for medicines available at the pharmacy. Patients can make an appointment by calling or walking-in. If required, the doctor will redirect the patient for necessary diagnostic examination or additional consultation to the EMC specialist.

Comments:

Artem Bektemirov, CEO, Pharmacy Chain 36.6:

'This is our first step towards practical implementation of our strategy on the medical services market. Using the synergy of the strong EMC brand and convenient locations of 36.6 pharmacies, we implement a new system to provide medical services'.

Stefan Garcia, General Director, EMC:

'We have established this doctor's office as the first in Russia, similar to the system of medical services in France. Now we offer a new alternative to the district doctor in your neighbourhood'.
